Introduction from Lornette Daye

Welcome to the Finish Strong series.

As a former elite sprinter, Canadian National Team athlete, and coach, I know exactly what it feels like to stand on the starting line with the weight of the world on your shoulders. I know the sting of setbacks, the grind of daily discipline, and the pressure to perform.

But I also know the power of resilience, faith, and mental fortitude.

These materials are designed for you—the student-athlete who is navigating the complexities of sports, academics, and life. Over the course of this journey, we will focus on building your identity, courage, and purpose beyond the scoreboard. My message to you is simple: no matter how the race begins, you have the power to Finish Strong.

Take time to reflect, prepare, and grow. You are more than an athlete.

Finish Strong,

Lornette Daye

Who Am I Beyond Sport?

Before building a resume, you must understand your core values outside of athletics.

What are three activities you enjoy that have nothing to do with your sport?

If you could not play your sport tomorrow, how would you want people to describe your character?

Transferable Skills Worksheet

Athletes possess highly sought-after skills. Translate them.

Sport Skill: Time Management -> Career Skill: Balances multiple high-priority projects and deadlines.

Sport Skill: Coachability -> Career Skill: Open to feedback and rapid iteration.

List 3 skills you learned in sport, and translate them to career language:

Resume Language Examples

Don't just say 'Team Captain'. Say: 'Led a team of 40+ peers, facilitating communication between coaching staff and roster, resulting in a championship season.'

Interview Answer Builder

Use the STAR Method: Situation, Task, Action, Result.

Situation (Set the scene):

Task (What was the challenge?):

Action (What did YOU do?):

Result (What was the outcome?):
